

DOCTOR • WHO

REIGN OF THE STONE MONKEY

PART TWO

Ancient China.

Elderly Chan Li continues his tale of monsters and a mysterious traveller from his childhood...

Grandfather. Tell us! What happened next?

The Monkey King had us in his power, and the Doctor and I faced a terrible end, until...

EXECUTE THEM.
I COMMAND YOU!

Well, that's no way to welcome visitors!

Doctor! What have you done?

Luckily for us I had time to pre-programme a feedback loop. We shouldn't have any more trouble from the soldiers.

And then...

So, you're the Great Stone Monkey, are you? I've never met a granite baboon before...

Do you mind if I call you Bingo? Good name for a baboon, Bingo.

And your friends, Pinky and Perky. You're a Hoglaphon aren't you, Pinky? Bit of a long way from home?

Not this time. My troops will never again surrender to your power.

Grawr!

I wouldn't worry because I never lose.

I choose... er... Pinky to face this challenge against you... Er?

I'm sorry, we've not actually been introduced! I'm the Doctor.

Doc... THE Doctor...?!

That's my name, don't wear it out. Nervous now?

"I watched from the city wall as the Doctor and the demon Pinky ran towards the Mountain of the North.

"I watched until they disappeared from view. Or at least until the pig creature disappeared. Actually disappeared..."

Oink!

What are you?

I'm your wake-up call. You're finished here. Time to move on.

We will regain control over the soldiers. You cannot defeat us that easily.

Easy there, Bingo. Why don't we make this more interesting? How about a bet? Some kind of challenge? If I win you leave, no questions asked.

And when I defeat you, troublemaker? What then?

Governor, perhaps you could decide what our challenge should be...

There is a rare lily, which grows only in the foothills of the Mountain of the North. It is known for bringing good fortune. Bring me a perfect, healthy lily. The first to do so wins.

You're pretty light on your feet for a Hoglaphon.

Oink. Even lighter when I use this!

What?! A short-range personal teleport! Come on, that's not fair!

The Doctor watches as the demon teleports - and has to think quickly...

OK, let's think. Now, if I was a local farmer surely I'd have got one of these lillies for myself by now, as an offering to the spirit world for a good harvest.

Which means if I can find a local shrine, there is a good chance...

A short while later...

Perfect. I hope you don't mind if I borrow this? It's for a good cause.

And then...

Doctor!

You are beaten, troublemaker.

So the demon makes another deal...

In the cave lives a powerful man-eating dragon. If you can tame it, we shall leave.

Hmmm. How suspiciously accommodating of you. Oh well. Why not!

Doctor! I have heard of this dragon. Nothing has ever returned from that cave, save the screams of the dragon's prey!

Tell me, Li, I don't suppose that dragon turned up at about the same time as this bunch?

Why, yes...!

Don't worry about me, Li, whatever happens. When the right moment comes, gather all those with a will to resist and run these criminals out of town.

It is time, Doctor. Stop dallying and face your destiny.

I'll see you in a bit, then. Stick the kettle on, I won't be long.

No. He is not alone. I will fight you.

And me.

And me.

I will fight you too. I'll slap your bottoms so hard...!

Oink.
Stupid
flower.

What? You call
that a perfect,
healthy lily?

This is a perfect
lily! Oh, alright, let's call this one a draw.
Why don't we make it best of three?

Enough of these games, Doctor. I shall set
the next challenge,
from which there
can be only one victor.

Everyone waited and watched until...

Suddenly...

BOOM!

YES!
We have defeated the irritating flea.

Doctor!
NO!

Back to business then. Those who resisted us will be punished as an example to you all.

I don't think so. We don't want you here anymore.
Now GO!

Pitiful little worm. You think you alone can stop us?

That's it, boys.
We're done here.
Run! Make for
the cave!

Inside the cave...

Hurry. We need to power up the ship and get out of here!

Hello boys! Lovely to see you again. I wouldn't come any closer if I were...

I did say! I tried to warn you. That's your own restraint ray you're caught in.

I rebooted your defence system. It might have scared the locals, but I wasn't very impressed.

I've programmed the autopilot! The authorities will be waiting up there to arrest you when you get home...

Doctor! You're alive. But the dragon...?

I've tamed a few real dragons in my time. A metal one with a cheap defence system wasn't a problem.

Wow! My uncle will never believe this!

Talking of whom, it's about time you got yourself home, young man. Your mother will be worried.

I think you have a very bright future ahead of you.

"And with that, we said our goodbyes, and the Doctor was gone."

Many years later...

You were so brave, Grandfather.

Oh, once or twice, but that's another story. Goodnight, children!

Did you ever meet the Doctor again?

And on the same evening...

Hello, Li old friend. So, you made Governor then?

Talk of the devil. And my, you haven't aged a day!

A new adventure starts next week!
